

KAI Accreditation Course

Hybrid format (online and face-to-face),
July 8-11, 2024

Steger Center for International Scholarship,
Riva San Vitale, Switzerland

KAI is one of the world's foremost measures for problem-solving, teamwork and creativity.

The KAI Accreditation Course is an exclusive programme for qualification in the use of KAI, the Kirton Adaption-Innovation Inventory. KAI has been helping to build leaders and teams for more than 40 years.

Many KAI Practitioners are high-level leadership consultants and HR professionals, and they frequently cite KAI as one of the most sophisticated, insightful and robust tools available. KAI is backed by extensive academic research, including more than 450 academic theses & papers, and is used in many sectors, including business, government, military and healthcare organisations.

As an Accredited KAI Practitioner, you will be able to use and administer the KAI Inventory, an effective & highly marketable psychometric tool. KAI is provided online and is available in a range of languages.

This course is presented in a hybrid format, with 10 hours study online, and attendance at the Steger Center, Riva San Vitale, Switzerland, on 4 days (8-11 July inc.). See p2 for more details.

Tutors are from the Center for Cooperative Problem Solving at Virginia Tech University. You will earn 3.5 Continuing Education Units (CEUs) from VT, for completing the course.

KAI is widely used by organisations of all types and sizes, to:

- coach CEOs, Board, or C-Suite teams
- help teams to achieve breakthroughs
- manage major transformational change
- reduce workplace stress
- generate new products
- help manage diversity
- mediate between individuals or teams
- improve communications
